Cuisine	Showcasing the signature big, bold Italian flavors from Chef Chiarello, but with a more refined twist, Bottega's menu highlights the bounty of artisanally produced as well as house made ingredients.
Signature Dishes	Warm Pecorino Cheese "Pudding" with Wood-Oven Roasted Rapini; House made Veal Tortellini in Brodo di Carne with Browned Butter; Seared Day-Boat Scallops with Pink Chickpea Passatina; Wood-Oven Roasted Whole Fish with Meyer Lemon and Shaved Fennel Citrus Salad.
Wine/Bar	Mainly local, small-production vintages from California complemented with a solid collection of Italian wines. Reasonably priced to encourage tastings. Specialty bar drinks served with perfectly paired bites.
Location	Bottega is located in the historic V Marketplace, the site of one of the oldest wineries in Napa Valley and the original Chutney Kitchen.
Design	The interior reflects food: celebrating both the rustic and the refined. Olive greens, chocolate browns and deep reds create a warm palette. Design elements include distressed leathers in butter, Venetian plaster, imported Murano glass chandeliers and Donghia fabric.
Layout	Two indoor dining rooms with a private dining/wine room and bar, five communal tables made of forty year-old timbers, Calcutta d'Oro marble and recycled concrete. The outside covered Terrazzo has two wood-burning stone fireplaces, with both lounge and table seating.

Seats	118 in the indoor dining rooms 66 outdoor seats on the Terrazzo
Private Dining	A private dining/wine room seats 8 guests. Additional availability in the adjacent NapaStyle for parties of 20-80 and throughout the Vintage Estate Properties for up to 350.
Hours	Dinner Sunday through Thursday 5:30 pm until 9:30 pm; Friday and Saturday from 5:30 pm until 10 pm. Lunch service beginning December 12, 2008, 11:30 – 2:30pm. Lounge is open for late service, weather permitting.
